College Coaching for WCPS Families

What is College Coaching?

- An opportunity for college-bound students and their parents to receive individualized counseling and assistance with the college application, scholarship, and financial aid processes.
- Private sessions with a high school counselor.
- Customized action plan and list of resources.
- One-hour appointments available during the school day and in the evenings.

Possible Topics of Discussion:

Academic Planning

- Coursework
- SAT/ACT tests
- SAT/ACT preparation plan
- Advanced Placement exams

College Search

- Narrowing the choices
- College visits
- NCAA eligibility

College Applications

- Types of admissions and deadlines
- Common application
- College essay
- Transcript requests
- Test scores
- Fee waivers

Financial Aid and Scholarships

- CSS/Profile
- FAFSA
- Net Price calculator
- Scholarship resources
- Comparing financial aid packages

Who Can Benefit from College Coaching?

- Families who are new to the college process.
- Families who have questions about financial aid.
- Families who never thought about college until recently.
- Families who want to be sure they haven't missed an important step.
- Families who don't know where to begin.

College Coaching appointments are available for seniors in the fall and juniors in the spring.
