College Admission Consultants

Educational consultants and independent counselors work outside the school setting to provide college admission guidance and related services to students and parents for a fee. The consultants below are registered with either the National Association for College Admission Counseling or the Independent Educational Consultants Association. This list is provided as a resource for parents and students and should not imply endorsement of these individuals or their services by WCPS. Families interested in contracting with an educational consultant are encouraged to research that individual's qualifications and references before making a final commitment.
